

Happy Passover

West Essex Tribune

LIVINGSTON, NEW JERSEY, MARCH 29, 2007

Page B-12

West Essex Tribune

March 29, 2007

Livingston People

Burgdorff ERA recently announced that Patricia "Trish" Duffy has joined the company as a real estate sales associate in its Livingston office/Gail Lowenstein Division. Duffy has been a licensed New Jersey real estate sales associate since 1990. She is a member of the National, New Jersey, and North Central Jersey Associations of Realtors, as well as the Real Estate Buyers' Agent Council. She also holds several professional designations, including the CRS (Council of Residential Specialists), ABR (Accredited Buyer Representative) and SRES (Senior Real Estate Specialist).

Former Livingston resident Dr. Rose Heller-Savoy, a breast imaging and interventional specialist, has returned to New Jersey to work at the Montclair Breast Center. Dr. Heller-Savoy, who was valedictorian of her class at Livingston High School, most recently worked in south Florida as director of the Women's Center at Memorial Hospital West. She also worked as supervising radiologist of breast imaging at Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital, and, while working at the Wilentz Breast Center, was the second radiologist in New Jersey to be certified in digital mammography.

Township attorney and former mayor Sharon L. Weiner, a partner in the Lyndhurst law firm of Scarinci and Hollenbeck, L.L.C., has been recog-